

Bulletproof Vest: Material Durability Analysis

CCD cameras, DVR recorder, and frame grabber are used to gather and analyze the durability of teflon used in bulletproof vests.

The camera captures high speed images of the bullet at impact while the DVR recorder stores the image for analysis on a CPU. The vest's response to the bullet is captured effectively for analysis.

