

Path Tracker Vision System in Retail

- Analysis of the demand of a merchandise is of utmost importance in retail.
- Organizing the merchandise for creating higher sales can be successfully achieved by tracking the paths of the customer within the store layout.
- An overhead camera in each section of the store along with a vision controller can provide the data of the time spent by customers on each product

Matrox 4Sight EV6 Vision Controller